21 Chambers: Ongoing Series

Twenty-one chambers is a series of meditative analog-digital paintings and drawings reflecting an inner world of hope and forgiveness in a time of crisis. Each image peels away painful memories in a tornado of color, texture, and line . They represent courage, love, magic, soul, and blackness in a time of introspection. Transparency is used to camouflage and distort the past until it contorts into a garden of playful shapes meant to invite the viewer in.
